Re AB 33 (Sub No.. 201X)

Dear Secretary Williams:

We find that we need more time in which to finalize negotiations for the acquisition of the railroad right-of-way between Coulter and Hampton in Franklin County, Iowa. We were of the opinion that these negotiations were being concluded but find that we do require additional time.

The Union Pacific Railroad has not abandoned this corridor and I believe agrees that these negotiations can be completed well within another 180 period. We are forwarding a copy of this request to the Union Pacific offices in Omaha and in Chicago.

Thank you for your kind consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Tom F. Neenan
